For the prevention and cure o
BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended
AHN's ANTI BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended th a degree of success highly grateful the inventor's feelings in several parts the West Indies and in the South'n d Middle States, &c.
The testimony of a number of person n be adduced, who have reason to be-ve that a timely use of this salutary redy has, under Providence, preserved ir lives when in the most alarming cir-mstances.
Facts of this conclusive nature speak re in favour of a medicine than couns of pompous eulogy founded on re assertion.
It is not indeed presumptuously presed as an infallible cure, but the invenhas every possible reason that can ret from extensive experience for be-ving that a dose of these Pills taken ce in every two weeks during the prelence of our bilious fevers, will prove infallible preventive; and further, at in the earlier stages of those diseases eir use will very generally succeed in storing health, and frequently in cases eemed desperate and beyond the pow-of common remedies.
The operation of these pills is perfectly ld, so as to be used with safety by per-ns in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry f superfluous bile and prevent its mord secretions—to restore and amend the petite—to produce a free perspiration d thereby prevent colds which are of-n of fatal consequences. A dose never ils to remove a cold if taken on its first pearance: they are celebrated for re-oving habitual costiveness—sickness at e stomach and severe head-ache—and ght to be taken by all persons on a hange of climate.
They have been found remarkably effitious in preventing and curing disorers attendant on long voyages, and hould be procured and carefully preserv-d for use by every seaman.

Proposals

FOR Publishing by Subscription, and now ready for the press, a series of historical volumes, which when finished will assume the title of

Universal History Americanised;

Or, an historical view of Europe, Asia, Africa and America, from the earliest records to the nineteenth century—with a particular reference to the state of society, literature, religion, and form of government in the United States of America.
BY DAVID RAMSAY, M. D.
"Life is so short and time so valuable, that it were happy for us if all great works were reduced to their quintessence." Sir William Jones.

PROSPECTUS.

ASIA.
The Asiatic part of this work contains a general view of the antediluvians—of the general deluge—of the re-settlement of the Globe after that great event—of the primitive postdiluvian nations which were formed in Asia, the cradle of the world. Their various ramifications, revolutions, and of the general course of Empire.

AFRICA.
The African part, contains a concise history of Egypt, Carthage, Numidia, Mauritania, Abyssinia, of the Piratical States, and the Hottentots, with a grouped view of its uncivilized settlements.

EUROPE.
The European part, contains the history of Greece and Rome, from their origin to their dissolution—of the various nations which were conquered by them—and of the nations by which the Romans themselves were finally conquered, and of the nations which were formed from the fragments of the Roman Empire, and the various revolutions of the latter, together with a view of the nations which never were subjected to the Romans.

AMERICA.
The American part, contains a general history of the Western continent, under the heads of Free, European, and Aboriginal or unconquered America. The first contains a history of the United States, from their first settlement as English Colonies, till the present time.—The second, of all parts dependant on Europe.—And the third, of all that are still owned by the Aborigines.
It is expected that the whole will be comprised in 10 or 12 octavo volumes, of between four and five hundred pages each—to be printed in Philadelphia, on good paper and fair types, for $3 1-3 per volume, in sheep binding, or $4 1-3 Calf Gilt, to be paid for on delivery.

AUTHORITIES.
This work has been in contemplation upwards of 40 years. The project of it was conceived in 1786, on reading the Universal History, then recently edited in 60 volumes, by a society of gentlemen in England. The original idea of extracting the quintessence of that voluminous work, which contained the most complete system of history the world had then seen, has ever since been enlarging and improving by an attentive perusal of the histories written by Robertson, Hume, Gibbon, and other modern authors—of the Asiatic researches—of the works of Sir William Jones, and other learned Orientalists—the publications of intelligent travellers, who, in the course of the last half century have explored almost every region of the Globe. These collectively have thrown a blaze of light on countries comparatively unknown, and on portions, both of ancient and modern history which were confused and obscure at the period when the writers of the Universal History published their work. The arrangement of materials collected from these sources commenced in the year 1780, when, in consequence of the surrender of Charleston to Sir Henry Clinton, the author was suddenly released from a sea of business and sent as a prisoner of war to the British Garrison then in St. Augustine, and there confined for eleven months, without any peculiar employment. Steady progress has been made for the last ten years in correcting and transcribing the work for publication.

UNITED STATES.
The History of the United States is given at full length—that of foreign countries is more or less expended or contracted in proportion to the intrinsic importance of each—its tendency to illustrate portions of Holy Writ—the Greek and Latin Classics—and also in proportion to its connexion with the U. States, or as furnishing useful practical information to its citizens, or as the paternal soil of their ancestors.

The above sketch of the nature and objects of this immense work, which has occupied the attention of the Author for upwards of 40 years, was found among his papers, and is now given to the public in his own words. Since that period, a few chapters have been added by the Reverend SAMUEL STANHOPE SMITH, which brings it down to the close of the last war.
The publication commences with a third impression of the History of the U. States, in three volumes, which is all that has ever appeared. The whole will not be delivered under 15 or 20 months. It is proper to state, that the gentlemen who have the direction of it are neither booksellers nor printers, and receive no pecuniary consideration for their trouble—but are willing to make the necessary advances to carry it into execution provided the sale is warranted by public patronage. The profits arising are to be appropriated for the support and education of his children, four of each sex: to them its success is a matter of deep importance.

THE ELOQUENCE OF PHILLIPS,

Our readers will do us injustice and frustrate in a great measure the beneficial purposes for which we present them with these extracts from the Edinburg Reviewers' Criticism upon Phillips's Eloquence, if they do not keep in mind the observations with which we set out in the first number of these papers, in which we stated that our object was to guard them against a taste for false eloquence, by shewing them its deformities in a popular orator, exposed by the most eminent critics in Great Britain, who themselves have taken care to fence themselves in against all suspicion of being prejudiced against by an avowal that in other respects in which he came under their view he was an object of their partial favor.—"We highly approved (say they) of his political opinions, though a little exaggerated in the expression; we admired the independence of his conduct; we saw in him many of the highest qualities of an orator. But we perceived him to be surrounded by the worst of enemies—flatterers—and as he has, in his sphere, committed the error so often fatal even to great men—mistaken flatterers for friends, and allowed his ear to be tickled by their praises, till he fancied every one his foe who spoke unpleasant truths, he has gone on, not perhaps from bad to worse, but in a repetition of the same kind of composition—all the defects remaining, and the merits having lost the novelty by which they chiefly attracted notice. It would be a disgraceful sacrifice of truth to party feelings, were we to say less than we think upon this subject, because we sincerely agree in most of Mr. Phillips's opinions. The sentiments of esteem which all we have heard of his political conduct teaches us to entertain for his character, and the good opinion we still have of his natural talents, make it impossible not to cherish, even after the publication of this, a fond hope that his eyes may yet be opened to the deplorable folly of choosing his critics among friends blinded by partiality, or mobs incapacitated by ignorance, and of believing that the advertisements of the one, or the noise of the other, can succeed in changing that eternal rule, still more applicable to oratory than poetry, that 'Sense is the only source of excellence."

"In the publication before us we have, first of all, to complain of the same system of puffing which has, in Mr. Phillips' former publications, given offence to every person of correct notions, and more especially to those who possessed any feelings of professional delicacy. A young barrister, printing his speeches, at public meetings as well as in courts of law, at tavern dinners, in various places both on the main land and in islands in the lakes, betokens a zeal for applause not very usual among members of that learned order. The title page bears that these speeches are 'edited by himself.' He dedicates them himself to Mr. Roscoe, and then modestly steps aside for a moment that his friend, Mr. Finlay, (the same gentleman, we presume, who is praised largely in one of the speeches) may come forward and deliver, in the shape of a preface, a highly wrought panegyric of the orator, equally warm indeed with any thing said by Quintilian of Cicero, though not in precisely the same style. This piece is entitled "Preface, by John Finlay, esq" Mr Finlay treats his friend as if he had already taken his place among the English classics. "The speeches of Mr. Phillips (says he) are now, for the first time, offered to the world in an authentic form" The next sentence is written pretty much in the correct phraseology of "the Speeches of Phillips" themselves. "So far as his exertions have been hitherto developed, his admirers, and they are innumerable, must admit that the text of this volume is an acknowledged reference, to which future criticism may fairly resort, and from which his friends must deduce any title which the speaker may have created to the character of an orator." He then shows that he has borrowed also the correctness of metaphor which distinguishes Mr. Phillips. "Defects and detraction (says he) are as the spots and shadow which of necessity adhere and attach to every object of honorable toil" He afterwards boasts that these speeches are read in all the languages of Europe at this moment—meaning, of course, in the foreign newspapers, where it is unquestionable that far worse compositions than Mr. Phillips's are translated from the public papers of this country. The criticism to which they are subjected is next ascribed to the influence of government; for Mr. Finlay observes, "that Mr. Phillips's political principles have been a drawback on his reputation; and the dispraise of these speeches has been a discountable quality for the promotion of placemen and the procurement of place." As, however, he was probably aware that we had not so negotiated our paper, he must needs find another reason for the opinions expressed in the Edinburgh Review upon the speech in the case of Guthrie vs. Sterne, (No. I.) It seems we "look for the basis of the criticism, an unauthorised and incorrect publication of a single forensic exertion, in the ordinary routine of professional business" Now, we have a strong suspicion that this unauthorised publication was printed from Mr. Phillips's own hand writing. At all events, it bore manifest proofs of having been corrected, or rather written by him; and if any further evidence were wanting, the book before us contains it, for it contains that speech, almost word for word, as in the edition reviewed by us—the only alterations being a word here and there, probably typographical errors in the former edition.* Indeed it happens whimsically enough that this is the very speech selected by our judicious panegyrist, a few pages further on, as the best instance of Mr. Phillips's reasoning powers and skilful selection of topics.

* It is worthy of remark, however, that the sentence about "An artery torn from the heart strings" is omitted in the present edition. But does Mr. Finlay mean to say that Mr. Phillips never spoke of such an artery? No doubt the original edition was correct in this particular; and the words are now left out because they were laughed at. What Printer, indeed, could have inserted them?

The following mode of preparing seed Corn is extracted from "transactions of the Agricultural Society of New York."—As the season for planting is at hand, our practical farmers may be benefited by a trial.

"Take three ounces of salt petre, bruise it fine, and dissolve it in as much soft or brook water, as will immerse one half bushel of corn, to which add one pint of strong ley: steep the corn in this liquor, before planting, twenty hours then spread it on a dry floor, about five or six hours, when it will be fit to plant I make no doubt but this treatment would be useful to seed wheat, or other grain, and shall here relate an experiment I made about two years past. Late in the fall, a neighbor of mine being at my house, was lamenting that he had met with some embarrassment that had prevented him from sowing a part of his crop of wheat in proper time: I told him if he would follow my directions I would engage the wheat he would now sow would be as forward in growth as what he had sowed a fortnight past. He promised to follow whatever I would prescribe and I gave him as much salt petre as was sufficient for what wheat he had to sow, enjoining him at the same time, to give me an accurate account of the success of his crop. About the time his wheat was fit to reap, he came and told me the wheat he had sown by my directions was on the same kind of ground his other wheat was sowed on—that it was sooner ripe—that it grew four inches longer than what he had sown early, and was at least 25 per cent. better.

THE RETORT COURTEOUS.

Mr Sergeant Gardener being lame of one leg, and pleading before the late Judge Fortescue, who had little or no nose, the judge told him he was afraid that he had but a lame cause of it—"Oh! my lord! (said the sergeant) have but a little patience, and I'll warrant I'll prove every thing as plain as the nose on your face."

Fontenelle being asked by a Lord one day at Versailles, 'what difference there was between a clock and a woman,' replied, 'a clock seems to point out the hours, and a woman to make us forget them.'

He that always observes the censuring murmurs of idle people, can never let the blush of suspicion depart from his cheek.

In the clearest sunshine of fair prosperity we are subject to the boisterous storms of gloomy adversity.

The London papers speak of several meetings of the diplomatic corps at the house of the English minister at Paris. The general opinion was, that these negociations have for their object the entire removal of the army of occupation in the course of the ensuing summer.

It was expected that the British Parliament would soon be dissolved, and a general election for members of the House of Commons take place.

The London Courier, of the 13th ult. after noticing our preparations for building ships of the line, observes, "We cannot refrain from suspecting that the period is not far distant when hostilities will break out between Spain and the United States." The editor then notices the proceedings of our congress relative to Mr. Meade.

The London papers speak of the general success of the manufacturers, particularly in cotton and silk goods, which could not be purchased as fast as wanted even at an advance of 15 per cent. in price.

IMPROVEMENT IN SHIP BUILDING.

A schooner of 60 tons was launched at Belfast, Ireland, on the 10th ult. with no frame timber, breast-hooks, beams or knees; and without any metal below water, except rudder-braces, and a few bolts in her keel. —

New-Orleans papers to the 6th instant, have been received at the Steam Boat Hotel Reading Room. The following letter of Gen. Lallemand, we extract from the Orleans Gazette of the 3d. It is intended as a brief reply to a letter from Natches which was published in the Louisiana Gazette of the 31st March, the purport of which (for the want of that paper) we can only infer from the reply, and the accompanying remarks of the editor, with whom we coincide in opinion that some explanation of the motives and intention of these emigrants would be, at least satisfactory to the public.

"The French colonists, who have gone to settle on the river Trinity, had no other object than the choice of productive lands, where they might procure laborers and cattle at low prices, and from which they might derive a prompt and productive revenue. They look for those advantages which are to be derived from a rich soil, by active laborious men:—they have no other wish than to cultivate them and to enjoy the tranquility necessary to such an establishment They have no connection with any assemblage that has heretofore taken place in those parts, and will never engage either in privateering or smuggling, nor in any other occupation that might render them a subject of disquiet to any people.

(Signed) H. LALLEMAND.

New-Orleans, April 1, 1818."

The above is copied from L'Ami des Lois of Tuesday. It places beyond doubt the fact that the colony of Frenchmen, who contemplated settling on the banks of the Alabama, have, for some unknown cause, preferred a residence on the frontier of the Spanish dominions adjacent to the state of Louisiana, and that they have actually removed thither. We cannot but believe such respectable authority as Gen. Lallemand, that the objects of the colony are legitimate. Still, however, there are certain points about this affair, upon which, if they do not involve state secrets, we should be happy to receive information:

As the territory, on which these people are about to settle, is in dispute between the United States and Spain, which party do they acknowledge?

Do they intend to make the territory their own, and establish a government distinct from, and independent of, every other?

Have they any connection with the Mexican republic? If any, what is its nature?

Is their government to be a monarchy, or a republic?

If a monarchy, who is to be their king?

In fine, have they an understanding with the government of the United States, or with any foreign government?

"There are more things in heaven and earth, Horatio,
"Than are dreamt of in your philosophy."

By the President of the United States of America.

A PROCLAMATION.

Whereas, by an act of the Lieutenant Governor, Council and Assembly of His Britannic Majesty's Province of Nova Scotia, passed in the year 1816, it was, among other things, enacted, that from and after the first day of May, of that year, "no Plaister of Paris, otherwise called Gypsum, which should be laden or put on board any ship or vessel at any port or place within the limits of the said Province, to be transported from thence to any other port or place within or without the said limits, should directly, or indirectly be unladen or landed, or put on shore, at any port or place in the United States of America, eastward of Boston, in the state of Massachusetts, nor unladen or put on board any American ship, vessel, boat, or shallop, of any description, at any port or place eastward of Boston aforesaid, under the penalty of the forfeiture of every such ship or vessel from which any such Plaister of Paris, or Gypsum, should be unladen contrary to the provision of the said act, together with her boats, tackle, apparel, and furniture, to be seized and prosecuted in manner thereinafter mentioned."

And whereas, by an act of the Congress of the United States, passed on the third day of March, 1817, it was enacted that from and after the fourth day of July, then next, no Plaister of Paris, the production of any country, or its dependencies, from which the vessels of the United States were not permitted to bring the same article, should be imported into the United States in any foreign vessel—and that all Plaister of Paris imported, or attempted to be imported, into the United States, contrary to the true intent and meaning of the said act of Congress, and the vessel in which the same might be imported, or attempted to be imported, together with the cargo, tackle, apparel, and furniture, should be forfeited to the United States; and liable to be seized, prosecuted, and condemned, in the manner therein prescribed:

And whereas, by the said act of Congress, it was further enacted, that the same should continue and be in force five years from the thirty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen: Provided nevertheless, that if any foreign nation or its dependencies, which, at the time of the passage of the said act of Congress, had in force regulations on the subject of the trade in Plaister of Paris, prohibiting the exportation thereof to certain ports of the United States, should discontinue such regulations, the President of the United States was thereby authorized to declare that fact, by his proclamation; and the restrictions imposed by the said act of Congress, should, from the date of such proclamation, cease and be discontinued in relation to the nation or its dependencies, discontinuing such regulations:

And whereas, an act of the Lieutenant Governor, Council, and Assembly of His Britannic Majesty's province of Nova Scotia, repealing the abovementioned act of the said province, passed in the year 1816, has been officially communicated by his said Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to this government.

And whereas, by the said repealing act of the said province of Nova Scotia, one of the dependencies of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, the regulations at the time of the passage of the said act of Congress, in force in the said province on the subject of the trade in Plaister of Paris, prohibiting the exportation thereof to certain ports of the United States, have been and are discontinued:

Now, therefore, I, James Monroe, President of the United States of America, do, by this my Proclamation, declare that fact, and that the restrictions imposed by the said act of Congress, do, from the date hereof, cease, and are discontinued in relation to his Britannic Majesty's said province of Nova Scotia.

Given under my hand at the city of Washington, this twenty-third day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen, and in the forty-second year of the Independence of the United States.

They are also of infinite service to those in the seafaring line, who make long voyages at sea, and are exposed to unhealthy climates; a preventive against contagious disorders—they are also a very pleasant bitter and are particularly recommended for the use of Taverns and Public houses, as well as private families.

Fan-Sash Making

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expence in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as if in town.

James Kennedy & Son,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

LEE'S MEDICINE STORE,

No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm destroying Lozenges,

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Teres or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fœtid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lezenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS AND MALIGNANT FEVERS is recommended

HAHN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold it taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthmas, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.—To parents who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative,

Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of

Nervous Disorders	Violent cramps in the stomach and back
Consumptions
Lowness of spirits	Indigestion
Loss of appetite	Melancholy
Impurity of blood	Gout in the stomach
Hysteric'l affection	Pains in the limbs
Inward weaknesses and debility	Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaister.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion,

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflamatory redness, scurfs, tetters, ringworms, sunburns, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water,

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

☞ At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.
